PORT ST. LUCIE - Anthony Lee of Port St. Lucie outkicked Palm City's Dale Ruby in the final hundred yards to win the sixth annual Run, Roll and Read 5K Run held Saturday morning at Manatee Academy. Lee, 35, covered the 3.1-mile loop course in 18:48, two seconds ahead of Ruby. Cary Allen of Hobe Sound was third in 18:52. Ruby, 45, the defending champion in 18:49 last year, won the Masters (age 40 and over) title for his efforts.

In the women's race, Kim Ellis, a former Okeechobee standout runner now residing in Tallahassee, won the Overall title in 19:33, Port St. Lucie's Chelsea Ellis finished second in 19:57, and Cynthia Washam of Jensen Beach was third in 22:00. Washam, 50, who won the Overall title last year, won the Masters title Saturday morning.

The start of the race was postponed nearly an hour to allow inclement weather to move out of the area.

A near-record crowd of 116 runners completed the event. All proceeds from the race went to benefit the media center programs at Manatee Academy.
